Once you cross the bridge, you are back home.

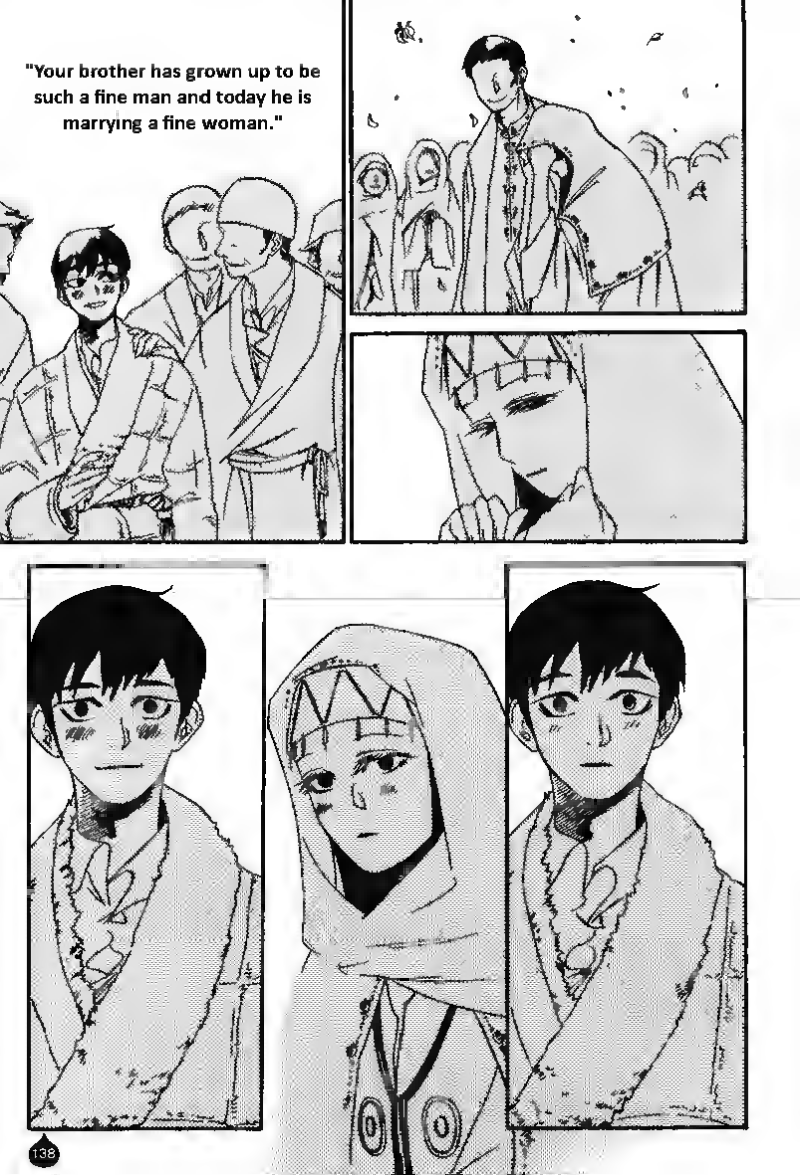
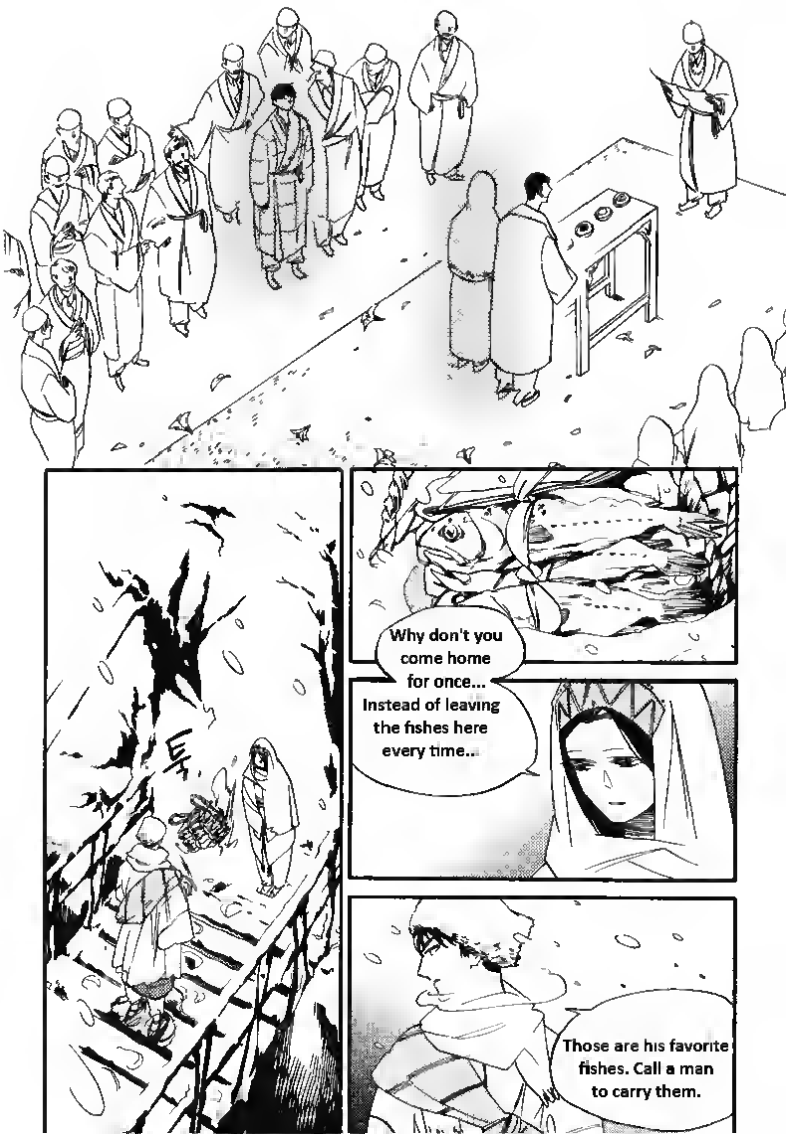
Are you still not coming back?
.... Why are you waiting for me here ?

Sister in law.
This is the day you come back.
So, I was waiting for you.
"Your in the will be to this."



"Your brother has grown up to be such a fine man and today he is marrying a fine woman."



Why don't you come home for once... Instead of leaving the fishes here every time..
Those are his favorite fishes. Call a man to carry them.

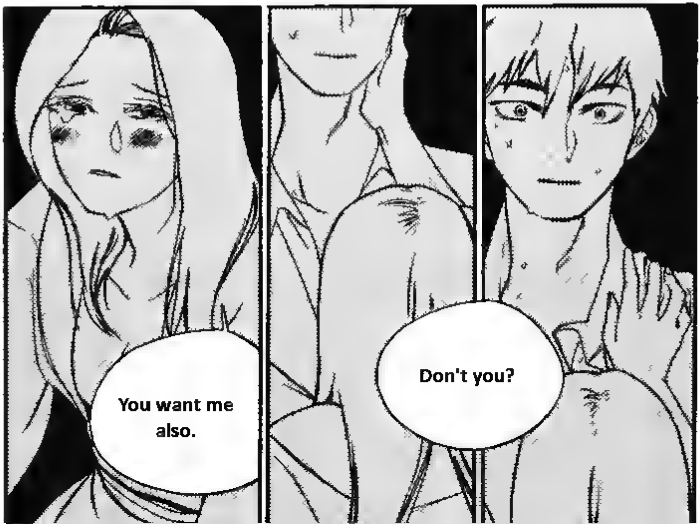
I have no right to see my brother's face.

"S...sister in law?!"

"Shh..."

"If I had met you earlier, I would have married you instead of him."

"What are you saying?! He could hear you!"



"I am going to relocate. I will be living right outside of the mountain."

"I've already found a place to work there."

"I see..."
"If that is what you want,
so be it."

"...But I must say I will be sad to see you go."

"After all, you are the only one I have left in this family."

"Brother, you can and will have children."

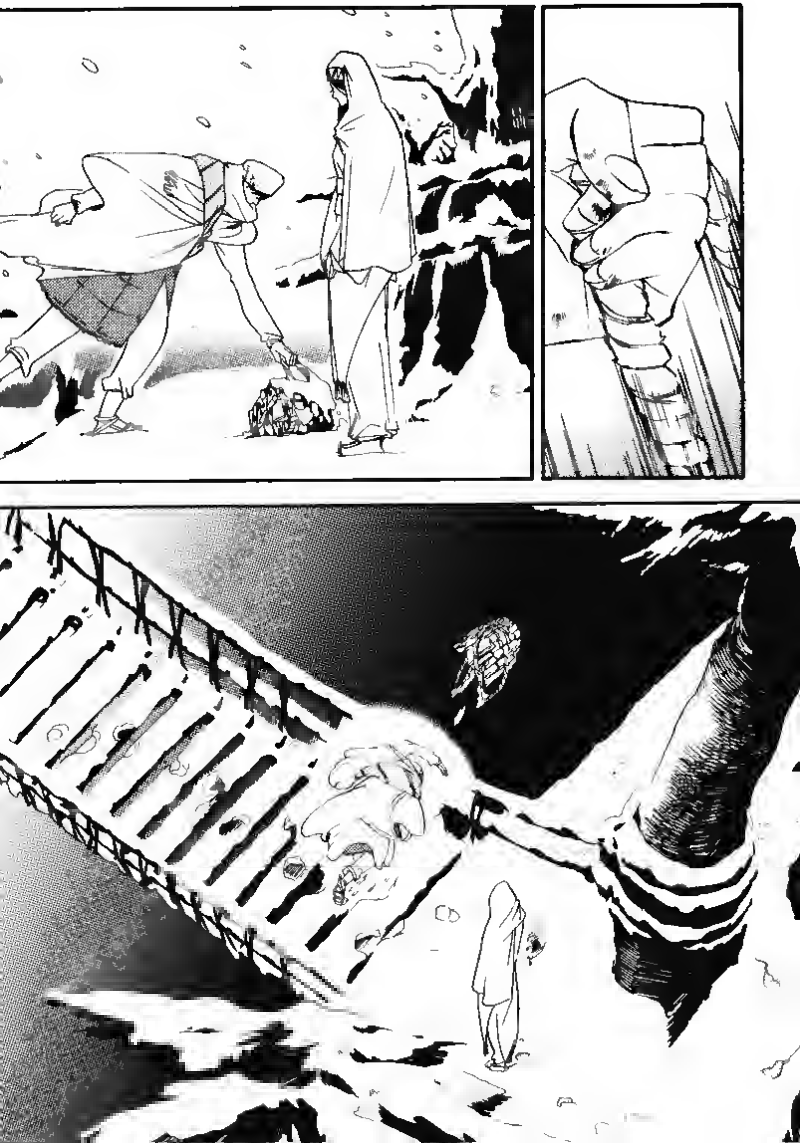
It's been few years now...
Have you gotten pregnant yet?
You really ...
Don't know ?

He passed away.
He passed away on the year you left the house.
He was already very weak when you left the mountain.

Why... didn't you tell me?
WHY DIDN'T YOU TELL ME !!!

Because I wanted to keep seeing you.
If I told you,
You would have not come back.
.... Or since now you know....

Will you finally cross the bridge?



I am sorry, brother.
